Lovely clean lines and a crisp modern feel are the order of the day for the ABI Elgar.

Colour accents are at work throughout the interior to lift the mood and cleverly give you the option to change the colour scheme of the space just by introducing new colours to work alongside the neutral backdrop.

The open plan living area is filled with light from the outlook patio doors to the front aspect. The view can be enjoyed throughout the front end of the holiday home.

A family shower room for all and a twin room for guests and family are passed on the hallway before you reach the master bedroom with en-suite w.c. Some might say it is a no frills holiday home, but for me this should be seen as a beautiful blank canvas upon which to paint your personality.
