ABI Beverley

Clean lines meet Nordic-inspired design with a sophisticated yellow and grey interior for an uplifting holiday home experience.

A spacious entrance hallway has a practical seating area for removing shoes and hooks for coats. Natural light pours in through full-width sliding patio doors and large dual-aspect windows into the bright and open-plan living area. The lounge features a comfortable two-seater and three-seater sofa, one of which converts into a sofa bed, while a cleverly designed coffee table conceals a hidden footstool. A sleek wall-mounted radiator and an electric wood-effect stove with a stylish surround add warmth and a cosy atmosphere to this contemporary space.

The kitchen has wood-effect countertops, generous cupboard storage, and integrated appliances including a fridge/freezer and microwave. The single oven comes with a built-in grill and a gas hob above. The dining area has a freestanding table that seats four comfortably beneath an eye-catching pendant light.

The twin bedroom is opposite the family shower room, fitted with a heated towel rail and an obscured window for privacy. At the end of the hall, the master bedroom has a calming, muted colour palette for relaxation, while the ensuite bathroom features a full-size bath with shower over. A discreet dressing area is tucked away behind the bed, complete with built-in wardrobes and a dressing table.
