Willerby Vogue

For sale at Pearl Lake Country Holiday Park

Holiday homes like this Willerby Vogue don't come along very often. It's a superb example of the breed! With oodles of space and some quirky additions – if you like it....you'd better come and buy it!

You enter the Vogue via the side entrance door from the decking – which wraps around the home – and you're straight into the light, airy and generous sized kitchen. There's an integrated fridge/freezer and dishwasher. The oven and hob over is larger than average with an extractor, plus there's heaps of cupboard space both under and over the counters. The dining table comfortably seats four.

Quirky feature number one – there's sliding doors between the kitchen and lounge which means you get extra privacy when need and there's no compromising on space. Leave them concealed for open plan living...pull them to when you've had a row!

The living room is a great space. With patio doors that take you straight onto the decking, it's really spacious with lots of windows that bring in plenty of light from this south facing plot. There's lots of storage here plus a large leather sofa with 2 easy chairs.

Through the kitchen door and into the sleeping quarters and here's quirky feature number two. The family bathroom has a p-shaped bath plus shower over! Holiday homes with baths are quite rare so if you love a soak then call the ownership
